Both Tiger teams traveled to Shenandoah on Thursday for another conference contest, falling in H-10 action.

The Tiger softball team was on fire at the plate, combining for a dozen hits, but it wasn't enough as they fell 12-8 to the Fillies.

"The girls had the best night so far this season at the plate," Red Oak head softball coach Brittany Wiig said. "The girls are starting to feel comfortable at the plate and Coach Ruskell and myself look forward to see them continuing to improve hitting as the season progresses."

Bond pitched a complete game, striking out three batters.

RO: Kells one hit; Ramirez two runs, one hit, one RBI; Lindsay one run, two hits, two RBI; Bentley three hits (one double), two RBI; Bond two hits (one triple), three RBI; Tori Wendt one hit; M. Wallace two runs, one hit, two SB; Alexis Joint two runs, one hit; H. Wallace one run.

"The girls continue finding the positives and recognizing what they need to continue working on out of each game and are really coming together as a team," Wiig said.

Red Oak baseball fell to Shenandoah in a high scoring contest. Shenandoah took an early lead 2-0 through the first three frames, then Red Oak added six runs in the fourth to gain its first lead.

The Mustangs plated two runs in the bottom of the frame, and Red Oak led 7-4 after adding another run in the top of the fifth. However, the
